

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

MARCH 30, 2017

CAROUSEL ROOM, WESTERN FAIR DISTRICT

LONDON, CANADA

MADE IN CANADA

8:00am Registration

9:00am Information Management & Cyber Security for Small Business

- ◆ Brigadier General (Ret'd) John Turnbull, Associate,
CFN Consultants, Ottawa, ON

SMEs are now faced with the full spectrum of cyber security threats and the seemingly impossible (and expensive) task of defending their IT infrastructure and information holdings. This brief will be a quick review of where to find GoC guidance on the subject and provide practical advice on the segregation of information holdings. These are high impact, and low or no cost measures that every company should establish to protect their information holdings to ensure confidentiality, integrity and availability.

10:00am The Changing Threat Posed by International Terrorists to Critical Infrastructure (and Public Spaces - Some Possible Solutions

- ◆ John Malevich, National Business Development Manager,
Siemens Security Solutions, St-Laurent, QC

10:30am Break

10:50am Cyber Liability & Risk Management Offerings

- ◆ Katie Andruchow, National Cyber & Privacy Expert,
Aon Risk Solutions, Burlington, ON

11:30am Trends in Risk Management within the Aerospace World

- ◆ Jason B. Hutchings, VP & Eastern Canada, Practice Leader, Aviation Specialty
Practice, Aon Risk Solutions, Burlington, ON

11:55am ◆ Chris McKittrick, Business Development – Defence, Promotion, Oakville, ON

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

MARCH 30, 2017

CAROUSEL ROOM, WESTERN FAIR DISTRICT

LONDON, CANADA

MADE IN CANADA

12:00 noon Lunch

1:00pm The new competitive advantage – How a robust compliance program can both protect and promote a company

- ◆ Sgt. Pat Poitevin, Senior Investigator - Outreach Coordinator
Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Sensitive and International Investigations
National Division, Ottawa, ON

2:15pm Concurrent Sessions:

- ◆ B2B Meetings
- ◆ Export Documentation & Controlled Goods by Strategic Shipping Canada Inc.

4:00pm Reception

